2. We are still in need of 5-8 girls to help out at REVIVE after school tomorrow. Get a group of friends together and come help out at Revive! See Mr. Soodsma if you are interested.
3. There is a song suggestion box in the Upper Learning Commons for the dance on February 8. Please submit any appropriate suggestions you have by January 31st.
4. Freshmen and Sophomores: On Saturday, March 16, GRCC will be hosting its annual 9th & 10th Grade Math Challenge. We would like to once again send two teams of six to compete against other area schools in four different competitions. Continental breakfast and a Subway lunch will be provided. If interested, please come to Mr. Brinks' room (305) on Thursday during lunch to find out more.
5. All students interested in serving on one of the committees for the play, Robin Hood and the Heroes of Sherwood Forest, should stop by the Counseling Office today at lunch to fill out an application. See Mr. Sanders if you have any questions.
6. This Friday is the dodgeball tournament after the basketball game. Today is the last day to sign up in the office with a group of 6-8 people. Prizes will be awarded to the winners and the best dressed.
